Information

Bantam = Small sized breed of poultry
Standard = Large sized breed of poultry

Cock = Male one year and over
Hen = Female one year and over
Cockerel = Male under one year
Pullet = Female under one year

If this is a Cloverbud/Pee Wee Exhibitor STOP HERE

Superintendent will determine how many, and what size cages are needed according to number and breed of birds exhibited.

Guidelines the Superintendent will follow:

1. Each Cloverbud/Pee Wee bantam chicken or bantam duck will have their own cage.
2. Never put two cocks or two cockerels together.
3. Cock/hens and cockerel/pullets of the same breed will share one cage (whether shown as a pair or as individuals).
4. Any two hens or two pullets will share one cage (whether same breed or not).
5. Any two market entries of the same species will share one cage, with the exception of two Tom Turkeys.
6. All breed pairs will share one cage.
7. Hen and chicks will be given cages with smaller wire so the chicks don't get out.
8. Exceptions to these guidelines will be addressed on check-in / entry day based on large bird size, available cage space, and tendency of birds to fight.

Directions for reverse side:

1. Indicate on reverse the total number of entries in each class that you plan to bring to the fair.
2. Only 14 total poultry entries are allowed – including showmanship.
3. No more than two entries per class for breed and two total individual market entries.
4. One entry per class of "Other Fowl Breeds" classes.
